Awards will be presented at the Colorado Restaurant Association's Board of Directors Dinner on Tuesday, October 25 at the Broadmoor Resort in Colorado Springs.

Nominations are currently being accepted for:

Colorado Foodservice Hall of Fame (Open to Anyone)

The Colorado Foodservice Hall of Fame award has been presented annually since 1978, to recognize and honor those individuals who have made significant contributions to the foodservice industry and who have dedicated their time and talents to better their communities.

The inductees in this honorary group have demonstrated lengthy careers of service to the industry, contributed to their communities, and have been recognized by their peers for their commitment to enhance the image of professional foodservice in Colorado.

Noel and Tammy Cunningham Humanitarian Award (CRA Members Only)

In honor of the late Noel and Tammy Cunningham of Strings Restaurant, the Colorado Restaurant Association has created the "Noel and Tammy Cunningham Humanitarian Award." This award is presented annually to an outstanding individual who has demonstrated the spirit of humanity through volunteer work, advocacy, leadership, and philanthropy in their community and/or around the world.
